

RECRUITING FOR CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

The Board of Directors of the Newfoundland and Labrador Division of CMHA is recruiting for a Chief Executive Officer (CEO) to lead the organization at a time when mental health is recognized as one of the major socio-economic issues facing the province. The Division's CEO is expected to keep the topic in the forefront of the public while managing a vibrant organization that has to compete for scarce public and community resources to implement its strategic plan. A key role for the CEO is to establish collaborative relationships with a wide range of community and government agencies to ensure the Division's ongoing success.

Our next CEO will be an outstanding communicator and a person who excels in relationship building, advocacy, media relations, fund development and leading people to help them perform to their highest potential. S/he will manage an annual budget of approximately $1 million, 11 staff, and a varying number of volunteers, as well as oversee operations of the provincial office based in St. John's and two regional offices: Grand Falls-Windsor and Stephenville.

Qualifications

The successful candidate will possess the following combination of skills, qualifications and experience:

- Community development, social work, and/or not-for-profit administration
- Familiarity with mental health and current related issues
- Advocacy
- Media relations
- Strategic planning
- Proposal development and grant writing
- Fund and/or business development
- Policy and program development and implementation
- Managing people, finances, programs and services
- Board relations
- Educational attainment at the Master degree level

The salary and benefits for the position are competitive with those offered by similar community-based organizations in the province. Further details about CMHA-NL are available on the website: www.cmhanl.ca.

For those persons interested in applying for the CEO position, please submit a covering letter and resume by close of business on Friday, May 8, 2015 addressed to:
